

652 PARK AVENUE

A Rochester landmark since 1975, The Frog Pond has had only three owners over its four decade history. Originally a Park Avenue barber shop, The Frog Pond first served food in 1975 under the ownership of Charlie Carrado, hence its original name: Charlie's Frog Pond. An old hang-out of famous Rochester artist and friend of Charlie, Ramon Santiago (whose art still graces our walls), Charlie's Frog Pond was a Rochester institution from the start drawing locals and visitors to its Park Avenue location.

By the time of its second ownership change in the 90's, Charlie's Frog Pond had become a hometown favorite for its vibrant interior (and frog wallpaper), breakfast classics and daily blackboard dinner specials, making the pint-size bistro a one-of-a-kind Park Avenue stand-out.

In late 2010, a new chapter of The Frog Pond's legacy began with new ownership, interior renovation and re-modernized name, "The Frog Pond." During this time, a memory wall paying homage to The Frog Pond's rich history and 40+ year legacy was also incorporated on the rear of the restaurant.

Among its many accolades, The Frog Pond is annually recognized for Rochester's Best Brunch, Best Burger, Best American and Best of Park Avenue. Each day our dynamic team strives to provide our classic selections with exceptional service and unique Frog Pond experience. Thank you for dining with us...Cheers and happy eating!
